ICSE Class 10 History: Key Dates

SECTION B: HISTORY

1. The First War of Independence (1857)

29 March 1857
Title: Barrackpore Spark

- Bullets:
  - Mangal Pandey revolted at Barrackpore.
  - He attacked British officers.
  - He was angered by the new greased cartridges.
  - This event was a key trigger before the main revolt.
- Why This Matters: It was the first open act of defiance by an Indian soldier, setting the stage for the wider uprising.
- Recall:
  The revolt at Barrackpore in March 1857 was led by:
  A) Nana Saheb
  B) Mangal Pandey
  C) Rani Lakshmibai
  D) Bahadur Shah Zafar

9 May 1857
Title: Punishment at Meerut

- Bullets:
  - 85 Indian sepoys at Meerut refused to use the greased cartridges.
  - They were court-martialed and sentenced to long imprisonment.
  - They were publicly stripped of their uniforms and put in irons.
  - This caused immense anger among their fellow soldiers.
- Why This Matters: This harsh punishment was the final spark that ignited the revolt among the sepoys in Meerut.
- Recall:
  On 9 May 1857, 85 sepoys were punished for refusing to use:
  A) New rifles
  B) Greased cartridges
  C) British uniforms
  D) Foreign goods

10 May 1857
Title: Revolt Breaks Out at Meerut

- Bullets:
    - Indian sepoys rose in open rebellion.
    - They released their imprisoned comrades.
    - Attacked and killed British officers.
    - The rebels then marched towards Delhi.
- Why This Matters: This marks the official beginning of the Great Revolt of 1857.
- Recall:
  The revolt of 1857 officially began at:
  A) Barrackpore
  B) Delhi
  C) Meerut
  D) Kanpur

11 May 1857
Title: Capture of Delhi

- Bullets:
    - The rebel sepoys from Meerut arrived in Delhi.
    - They captured the city.
    - Bahadur Shah Zafar was proclaimed the Emperor of India.
    - The rebellion gained a symbolic head and a central point.
- Why This Matters: It gave the revolt a political focus and challenged British authority at its core in the old capital.
- Recall:
  After the capture of Delhi in 1857, who was proclaimed the Emperor?
  A) Nana Saheb
  B) Mangal Pandey
  C) Bahadur Shah Zafar
  D) Rani Lakshmibai

June 1857
Title: Spread of the Revolt

- Bullets:
    - The rebellion spread to major cities.
    - Key centres of revolt were Kanpur, Lucknow, and Jhansi.
    - Nana Saheb led the revolt in Kanpur.

    - Begum Hazrat Mahal led it in Lucknow.
- Why This Matters: The spread showed the widespread discontent against British rule across North and Central India.
- Recall:
  The revolt of 1857 spread to all of the following centres EXCEPT:
  A) Kanpur
  B) Lucknow
  C) Bombay
  D) Jhansi

June 1858
Title: Fall of Jhansi and Gwalior

- Bullets:
    - Rani Lakshmibai was killed fighting the British in Gwalior.
    - Jhansi had already been captured by British forces.
    - Gwalior was the last major centre of the rebellion to fall.
    - This marked the effective military end of the revolt.
- Why This Matters: The death of Rani Lakshmibai symbolized the end of organized resistance by major rulers.
- Recall:
  The brave queen who fought and died in the revolt of 1857 was:
  A) Begum Hazrat Mahal
  B) Rani Lakshmibai
  C) Jijabai
  D) Ahilyabai Holkar

2 August 1858
Title: Government of India Act 1858

- Bullets:
    - Passed by the British Parliament.
    - Ended the rule of the East India Company.
    - Transferred the control of India to the British Crown.
    - The Secretary of State for India was created.
- Why This Matters: It formally brought India under the direct rule of the British Queen, beginning the period known as the British Raj.
- Recall:
  The Government of India Act of 1858 transferred power from the Company to the:

A) Indian Parliament
B) British Crown
C) Governor-General
D) Viceroy

1 November 1858
Title: Queen's Proclamation

- Bullets:
  - Issued by Queen Victoria.
  - Announced the assumption of power over India by the Crown.
  - Promised non-interference in religious matters.
  - Declared a policy of peace and goodwill.
- Why This Matters: It set out the new policy of the British government for ruling India directly.
- Recall:
  Queen Victoria's Proclamation was announced on:
  A) 10 May 1857
  B) 2 August 1858
  C) 1 November 1858
  D) 1 January 1877

---

2. Growth of Nationalism & Foundation of INC

1828
Title: Foundation of Brahmo Samaj

- Bullets:
  - Founded by Raja Rammohan Roy in Calcutta.
  - Opposed social evils like sati and caste system.
  - Promoted modern education and rational thinking.
  - Played a key role in the Bengal Renaissance.
- Why This Matters: It was a major socio-religious reform movement that helped create a modern, progressive outlook in India.
- Recall:
  The Brahmo Samaj was founded by:
  A) Swami Vivekananda
  B) Raja Rammohan Roy

C) Jyotiba Phule
D) Dayananda Saraswati

1848
Title: Jyotiba Phule's Work

- Bullets:
    - Jyotiba Phule started his work for educating lower castes.
    - Opened schools for girls and Shudras in Pune.
    - Worked against caste discrimination.
    - Founded the Satyashodhak Samaj (Society of Truth Seekers) later.
- Why This Matters: He was a pioneering social reformer who fought for the rights of the oppressed and marginalized sections of society.
- Recall:
  The social reformer who worked for the education of lower castes and girls was:
  A) Raja Rammohan Roy
  B) Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar
  C) Jyotiba Phule
  D) Swami Dayananda

1866
Title: East India Association

- Bullets:
    - Founded by Dadabhai Naoroji in London.
    - Aimed to discuss the Indian question and influence British public opinion.
    - It was a precursor to the Indian National Congress.
    - It highlighted the drain of wealth from India.
- Why This Matters: It was one of the first organized efforts to present the Indian viewpoint directly to the British public.
- Recall:
  The East India Association was founded in London by:
  A) Surendranath Banerjee
  B) W.C. Bonnerjee
  C) Dadabhai Naoroji
  D) A.O. Hume

1876
Title: Indian National Association

- Bullets:
    - Founded by Surendranath Banerjee in Calcutta.
    - Aimed to create a strong public opinion on political issues.
    - It merged with the Indian National Congress later.
    - It was a major nationalist organization before the INC.
- Why This Matters: It represented the growing political consciousness and organized nationalism in Bengal.
- Recall:
  The Indian National Association was founded by:
  A) Dadabhai Naoroji
  B) Gopal Krishna Gokhale
  C) A.O. Hume
  D) Surendranath Banerjee

1878
Title: Vernacular Press Act

- Bullets:
    - Passed by Lord Lytton.
    - Aimed to gag the Indian-language press.
    - Gave the government extensive rights to censor reports.
    - Was seen as a repressive colonial policy.
- Why This Matters: It angered Indian nationalists and became a major factor fueling the growth of nationalism.
- Recall:
  The repressive Vernacular Press Act was passed in:
  A) 1858
  B) 1878
  C) 1885
  D) 1905

28 December 1885
Title: First INC Session

- Bullets:
    - Held in Bombay at Gokuldas Tejpal Sanskrit College.
    - Founded by A.O. Hume along with Indian leaders.
    - W.C. Bonnerjee was the first President.
    - 72 delegates attended the session.

- Why This Matters: It marked the beginning of an organized, all-India political movement.
- Recall:
  The first session of the Indian National Congress was held in:
  A) Calcutta
  B) Bombay
  C) Madras
  D) Pune

1886
Title: Second INC Session

- Bullets:
  - Held in Calcutta.
  - Dadabhai Naoroji presided over the session.
  - The Congress's objectives and methods were further defined.
  - It showed the growing national unity.
- Why This Matters: It demonstrated the early nationalists' commitment to constitutional methods.
- Recall:
  The President of the INC's second session in Calcutta (1886) was:
  A) W.C. Bonnerjee
  B) Badruddin Tyabji
  C) Dadabhai Naoroji
  D) George Yule

---

3. First & Second Phase of the National Movement

1893
Title: Drain of Wealth Theory

- Bullets:
  - Dadabhai Naoroji explained the 'Drain of Wealth' theory in Britain.
  - He argued that India's wealth was being systematically drained to Britain.
  - This was a major economic critique of British rule.
  - It became a core argument for the nationalists.
- Why This Matters: It provided an economic rationale for the demand for self-rule.
- Recall:
  The 'Drain of Wealth' theory was propounded by:

A) R.C. Dutt
B) Dadabhai Naoroji
C) Gopal Krishna Gokhale
D) Mahadev Govind Ranade

1896
Title: 'Poverty and Un-British Rule in India'

- Bullets:
    - Dadabhai Naoroji published this famous book.
    - It detailed the economic exploitation of India.
    - It provided statistical evidence for the Drain of Wealth.
    - It became a foundational text for Indian nationalism.
- Why This Matters: It systematically exposed the economic costs of British colonialism.
- Recall:
  Dadabhai Naoroji's famous book on economic exploitation was:
  A) Hind Swaraj
  B) The Indian Struggle
  C) Poverty and Un-British Rule in India
  D) Discovery of India

1902
Title: Servants of India Society

- Bullets:
    - Founded by Gopal Krishna Gokhale.
    - Aimed to train national missionaries for the service of India.
    - Promoted social and political reform.
    - Worked for the cause of the poor and oppressed.
- Why This Matters: It created a dedicated group of workers to carry on social and political work for the nation.
- Recall:
  The Servants of India Society was founded by:
  A) Bal Gangadhar Tilak
  B) Gopal Krishna Gokhale
  C) Dadabhai Naoroji
  D) Lala Lajpat Rai

20 July 1905
Title: Announcement of Partition of Bengal

- Bullets:
    - Lord Curzon announced the plan to partition Bengal.
    - The official reason was administrative convenience.
    - The real motive was to divide Hindus and Muslims.
    - It sparked immediate and widespread opposition.
- Why This Matters: It triggered the Swadeshi and Boycott movements, marking the beginning of the second phase of the national movement.
- Recall:
  The Partition of Bengal was announced by Viceroy:
  A) Lord Ripon
  B) Lord Lytton
  C) Lord Curzon
  D) Lord Minto

7 August 1905
Title: Swadeshi Resolution

- Bullets:
    - Passed at a meeting at the Calcutta Town Hall.
    - Called for the boycott of British goods.
    - Advocated the use of Indian-made (Swadeshi) goods.
    - Marked the official launch of the Swadeshi movement.
- Why This Matters: It formalized the economic protest against the British.
- Recall:
  The formal resolution for the Swadeshi movement was passed on:
  A) 20 July 1905
  B) 7 August 1905
  C) 16 October 1905
  D) 30 December 1906

16 October 1905
Title: Day of Mourning

- Bullets:
    - The day the Partition of Bengal officially took effect.
    - Observed as a day of mourning throughout Bengal.
    - People fasted, observed 'Raksha Bandhan' and 'Arandhan' (no cooking).

    - Huge protest meetings and processions were held.
- Why This Matters: It demonstrated the unity of the people of Bengal against the British policy.
- Recall:
  The Day of Mourning was observed on:
  A) 7 August 1905
  B) 16 October 1905
  C) 30 December 1906
  D) 12 December 1911

30 December 1906
Title: Formation of Muslim League

- Bullets:
    - Founded in Dacca (now Dhaka).
    - It aimed to protect the political interests of Muslims.
    - The British government encouraged its formation.
    - Initially, it supported the partition of Bengal.
- Why This Matters: It marked the beginning of organized communal politics in India, which eventually led to the demand for Pakistan.
- Recall:
  The All India Muslim League was founded in:
  A) 1905
  B) 1906
  C) 1907
  D) 1909

December 1907
Title: Surat Split

- Bullets:
    - The INC session at Surat ended in a split.
    - The Moderates and the Extremists clashed.
    - The Extremists, led by Tilak, wanted more aggressive methods.
    - The split weakened the national movement temporarily.
- Why This Matters: It was a major setback for the Congress and showed the ideological differences within the party.
- Recall:
  The Congress split into Moderates and Extremists at which session?
  A) Calcutta (1906)

B) Surat (1907)
C) Lahore (1909)
D) Lucknow (1916)

1911
Title: Annulment of Partition of Bengal

- Bullets:
  - Announced by King George V at the Delhi Durbar.
  - The partition was cancelled due to massive protests.
  - Bengal was reunited.
  - The capital was shifted from Calcutta to Delhi.
- Why This Matters: It was a huge victory for the Swadeshi movement and showed that organized public protest could force the British to reverse their decisions.
- Recall:
  The Partition of Bengal was annulled in:
  A) 1905
  B) 1908
  C) 1911
  D) 1916

1916
Title: Lucknow Pact & Home Rule Movement

- Bullets:
  - The Congress and the Muslim League signed the Lucknow Pact.
  - They agreed to jointly present political demands to the British.
  - Bal Gangadhar Tilak launched the Home Rule Movement.
  - It marked the reunion of the Moderates and Extremists in the Congress.
- Why This Matters: It represented a high point of Hindu-Muslim unity and put united pressure on the British for reforms.
- Recall:
  The Lucknow Pact of 1916 was an agreement between the Congress and the:
  A) British Government
  B) Muslim League
  C) Justice Party
  D) Forward Bloc

---

4. Gandhian Era (1915-1947)

March 1919
Title: Rowlatt Act

- Bullets:
    - Passed by the Imperial Legislative Council.
    - Allowed political prisoners to be jailed without trial for two years.
    - Gandhi called for a nationwide 'Hartal' (strike) against this 'Black Act'.
    - It led to widespread protests across India.
- Why This Matters: It was the first all-India issue taken up by Gandhi, uniting people against a common repressive law.
- Recall:
  The Rowlatt Act allowed the imprisonment of people without trial for a maximum of:
  A) 1 year
  B) 2 years
  C) 3 years
  D) 5 years

13 April 1919
Title: Jallianwala Bagh Massacre

- Bullets:
    - Occurred on Baisakhi day in Amritsar.
    - General Dyer ordered troops to fire on a peaceful gathering.
    - Hundreds of unarmed men, women, and children were killed.
    - The brutality shocked the entire nation.
- Why This Matters: It was a turning point that destroyed faith in British justice and galvanized the national movement.
- Recall:
  The Jallianwala Bagh massacre took place in the city of:
  A) Lahore
  B) Amritsar
  C) Delhi
  D) Calcutta

November 1919
Title: Khilafat Movement

- Bullets:
    - Launched by the Ali Brothers (Mohammad Ali and Shaukat Ali).

    - Aimed to protect the Ottoman Caliphate (Khilafat) in Turkey.
    - Gandhi saw it as an opportunity for Hindu-Muslim unity.
    - It was merged with the Non-Cooperation Movement.
- Why This Matters: It brought Hindus and Muslims together on a common political platform against the British.
- Recall:
  The Khilafat Movement was launched by:
  A) Mahatma Gandhi
  B) Maulana Azad
  C) The Ali Brothers
  D) Jinnah

1 August 1920
Title: Non-Cooperation Movement Launched

- Bullets:
    - Launched by Mahatma Gandhi.
    - It involved surrendering titles, boycotting schools, law courts, and foreign goods.
    - It was a peaceful and non-violent struggle.
    - It gained massive popular support.
- Why This Matters: It was the first mass-based nationwide movement that brought millions of Indians into the freedom struggle.
- Recall:
  The Non-Cooperation Movement was launched in:
  A) 1919
  B) 1920
  C) 1922
  D) 1930

5 February 1922
Title: Chauri Chaura Incident

- Bullets:
    - A violent clash between protesters and police in Uttar Pradesh.
    - A police station was set on fire, killing 22 policemen.
    - Violence was against Gandhi's principle of non-violence.
    - Gandhi withdrew the Non-Cooperation Movement.
- Why This Matters: It demonstrated Gandhi's unwavering commitment to non-violence, even at the cost of a popular movement.

- Recall:
  Gandhi withdrew the Non-Cooperation Movement due to:
  A) The Simon Commission
  B) The Chauri Chaura incident
  C) The Round Table Conference
  D) The Poona Pact

12 February 1922
Title: Suspension of the Movement

- Bullets:
  - Gandhi officially suspended the Non-Cooperation Movement.
  - He fasted to atone for the violence.
  - Many leaders were disappointed by the decision.
  - Gandhi was arrested shortly after.
- Why This Matters: It marked the end of the first major mass movement under Gandhi.
- Recall:
  The Non-Cooperation Movement was suspended in:
  A) 5 February 1922
  B) 12 February 1922
  C) 10 March 1922
  D) 1 August 1922

November 1927
Title: Simon Commission Appointed

- Bullets:
  - A British parliamentary commission to review the Government of India Act.
  - It had no Indian members.
  - Greeted with protests and the slogan "Simon Go Back" everywhere.
  - Lala Lajpat Rai died from injuries sustained during a protest.
- Why This Matters: Its appointment united Indians in their opposition to British arrogance.
- Recall:
  The slogan raised to oppose the Simon Commission was:
  A) Do or Die
  B) Inquilab Zindabad

C) Simon Go Back
D) Vande Mataram

December 1929
Title: Lahore Session & Poorna Swaraj

- Bullets:
    - INC session under the presidency of Jawaharlal Nehru.
    - The goal of "Purna Swaraj" (complete independence) was declared.
    - The tricolor flag was adopted.
    - January 26, 1930, was celebrated as the first Independence Day.
- Why This Matters: It marked a definitive shift from the goal of dominion status to complete independence.
- Recall:
  The demand for 'Purna Swaraj' was formalized at the INC session in:
  A) Calcutta
  B) Lahore
  C) Nagpur
  D) Madras

12 March 1930
Title: Dandi March Begins

- Bullets:
    - Gandhi started the march from Sabarmati Ashram to Dandi.
    - He was accompanied by 78 chosen followers.
    - The 240-mile march lasted 24 days.
    - Aimed to break the salt law.
- Why This Matters: It was a powerful act of defiance that mobilized the nation and challenged the legitimacy of British rule.
- Recall:
  The Dandi March began on:
  A) 6 April 1930
  B) 12 March 1930
  C) 5 March 1931
  D) 31 December 1929

6 April 1930
Title: Salt Law Broken

- Bullets:
    - Gandhi picked up a handful of salt at Dandi.
    - This was a symbolic breaking of the salt law.
    - It signaled the start of the Civil Disobedience Movement.
    - People across the coast began making salt.
- Why This Matters: It was a simple but powerful act of civil disobedience that inspired millions to defy the British.
- Recall:
  The Salt Law was broken by Gandhi on:
  A) 12 March 1930
  B) 6 April 1930
  C) 5 March 1931
  D) 1 August 1920

5 March 1931
Title: Gandhi-Irwin Pact

- Bullets:
    - An agreement between Gandhi and Viceroy Irwin.
    - Gandhi agreed to suspend the Civil Disobedience Movement.
    - Irwin agreed to release political prisoners and allow peaceful salt making.
    - Paved the way for Gandhi to attend the Second Round Table Conference.
- Why This Matters: It was the first time the British recognized the Congress as a negotiating party.
- Recall:
  The Gandhi-Irwin Pact was signed in:
  A) 1930
  B) 1931
  C) 1935
  D) 1942

Sept - Dec 1931
Title: Second Round Table Conference

- Bullets:
    - Held in London.
    - Gandhi attended as the sole representative of the Congress.
    - The conference failed to reach an agreement on minority rights.
    - Gandhi returned to India empty-handed.

- Why This Matters: Its failure led to the resumption of the Civil Disobedience Movement.
- Recall:
  Mahatma Gandhi attended which Round Table Conference?
  A) First
  B) Second
  C) Third
  D) All of them

March 1942
Title: Cripps Mission

- Bullets:
  - Led by Sir Stafford Cripps.
  - Sent by the British government to secure Indian cooperation for WWII.
  - Promised Dominion Status after the war.
  - The Congress rejected the proposals as they did not offer immediate independence.
- Why This Matters: Its failure showed that the British were not willing to part with power and paved the way for the Quit India Movement.
- Recall:
  The Cripps Mission arrived in India in:
  A) 1939
  B) 1942
  C) 1945
  D) 1946

8 August 1942
Title: Quit India Resolution

- Bullets:
  - The All India Congress Committee passed the Quit India resolution in Bombay.
  - Gandhi gave the call for 'Do or Die' (Karo Ya Maro).
  - Demanded an immediate end to British rule.
  - Was a final, nationwide mass struggle.
- Why This Matters: It was a mass movement that put immense pressure on the British to leave India.
- Recall:
  The slogan "Do or Die" is associated with which movement?

A) Non-Cooperation Movement
B) Civil Disobedience Movement
C) Quit India Movement
D) Home Rule Movement

---

5. Forward Bloc & INA

1938
Title: Haripura Session

- Bullets:
  - Subhas Chandra Bose was elected President of the INC for the first time.
  - He stood for a more assertive anti-British stance.
  - This session showed his growing popularity.
  - His ideas started to clash with the old Gandhian leadership.
- Why This Matters: It marked the rise of a new, more radical leadership within the Congress.
- Recall:
  Subhas Chandra Bose was first elected Congress President at which session?
  A) Tripuri
  B) Haripura
  C) Lahore
  D) Karachi

1939
Title: Tripuri Session & Resignation

- Bullets:
  - Bose was re-elected as Congress President, defeating a Gandhian candidate.
  - Due to differences with Gandhi, he felt compelled to resign.
  - He formed the Forward Bloc within the Congress.
  - This showed the growing ideological rift in the national movement.
- Why This Matters: It led to the formation of a new party that would continue the struggle with more radical methods.
- Recall:
  After resigning from the Congress in 1939, Subhas Chandra Bose formed the:
  A) Azad Hind Fauj
  B) Forward Bloc

C) Indian National Army
D) Home Rule League

3 May 1939
Title: Formation of Forward Bloc

- Bullets:
    - Founded by Subhas Chandra Bose.
    - Aimed to unite all left-wing elements within the Congress.
    - Advocated complete and immediate independence.
    - Opposed any compromise with the British.
- Why This Matters: It became the platform for Bose's brand of militant nationalism.
- Recall:
  The Forward Bloc was formed in:
  A) 1938
  B) 1939
  C) 1941
  D) 1942

17 January 1941
Title: The Great Escape

- Bullets:
    - Subhas Chandra Bose escaped from house arrest in Calcutta.
    - He fled India to seek international help for India's freedom.
    - He traveled through Afghanistan and the Soviet Union to reach Germany.
    - His escape was a dramatic and daring act.
- Why This Matters: It allowed him to mobilize support from the Axis powers against the British.
- Recall:
  Subhas Chandra Bose escaped from house arrest to seek help for India's freedom in:
  A) 1939
  B) 1940
  C) 1941
  D) 1942

February 1942
Title: Reorganization of INA

- Bullets:
    - Bose reorganized the Indian National Army (INA) in Southeast Asia.
    - It was formed with Indian prisoners of war and civilians.
    - Its goal was to liberate India with military force.
    - Bose gave the famous slogan, "Give me blood, and I shall give you freedom!"
- Why This Matters: It created a powerful military force dedicated to overthrowing the British Raj.
- Recall:
  The famous slogan "Give me blood, and I shall give you freedom!" was given by:
  A) Mahatma Gandhi
  B) Jawaharlal Nehru
  C) Subhas Chandra Bose
  D) Bhagat Singh

4 July 1943
Title: Bose Takes Command of INA

- Bullets:
    - Subhas Chandra Bose took the command of the INA in Singapore.
    - He gave the war cry of "Chalo Dilli" (On to Delhi).
    - He set up the headquarters of the INA in Rangoon.
    - The INA had separate women's unit, the Rani of Jhansi Regiment.
- Why This Matters: It marked the beginning of the INA's military campaign to free India.
- Recall:
  The women's unit of the INA was called the:
  A) Jhansi Ki Rani Brigade
  B) Rani of Jhansi Regiment
  C) Azad Hind Fauj
  D) Bhagini Sena

21 October 1943
Title: Provisional Government of Azad Hind

- Bullets:
    - Bose proclaimed the formation of the Azad Hind Government in Singapore.
    - It was declared the provisional government of a free India.
    - It received recognition from nine Axis powers.

    - It declared war against Britain and the United States.
- Why This Matters: It gave the freedom struggle an international dimension and a government-in-exile.
- Recall:
  The Provisional Government of Azad Hind was proclaimed in:
  A) 1942
  B) 1943
  C) 1944
  D) 1945

1944
Title: Invasion of India (Imphal & Kohima)

- Bullets:
    - The INA, along with the Japanese army, advanced towards India.
    - They fought fierce battles in Imphal and Kohima (in present-day Nagaland and Manipur).
    - They managed to reach Indian soil but were forced to retreat.
    - This was the first time an army was fighting to liberate India from the outside.
- Why This Matters: It was a serious military attempt to liberate India from the northeast.
- Recall:
  The INA's military campaign to liberate India reached up to:
  A) Delhi
  B) Imphal and Kohima
  C) Calcutta
  D) Rangoon

1945
Title: INA Trials at Red Fort

- Bullets:
    - After the war, the British put senior INA officers on trial at the Red Fort in Delhi.
    - The trials sparked massive public outrage across India.
    - The demand for their release became a powerful nationalist cause.
    - The British were forced to review their policy.
- Why This Matters: The trials and the popular reaction proved that the INA's spirit of patriotism had reached every corner of India.

- Recall:
  The famous trials of INA officers were held at:
  A) India Gate
  B) Red Fort
  C) Parliament House
  D) Gowalia Tank Maidan

---

6. Independence and Partition

March 1946
Title: Cabinet Mission Plan

- Bullets:
  - Sent by the British government to propose a framework for India's independence.
  - Proposed a three-tier federal structure for India.
  - Rejected the demand for a separate Pakistan.
  - Its proposals led to the formation of an Interim Government.
- Why This Matters: It was the last major British attempt to negotiate a united India's independence.
- Recall:
  The Cabinet Mission arrived in India in:
  A) 1942
  B) 1945
  C) 1946
  D) 1947

3 June 1947
Title: Mountbatten Plan

- Bullets:
  - Announced by Viceroy Lord Mountbatten.
  - Proposed the partition of India into two dominions: India and Pakistan.
  - Gave the princely states the choice to join either dominion.
  - Was quickly accepted by the Congress and Muslim League.
- Why This Matters: It provided the final blueprint for the partition and independence of India.
- Recall:
  The plan that led to the partition of India was the:

A) Cabinet Mission Plan
B) Cripps Mission Plan
C) Mountbatten Plan
D) Wavell Plan

July 1947
Title: Indian Independence Act

- Bullets:
  - Passed by the British Parliament.
  - It declared that India would be independent on August 15, 1947.
  - It created the two independent dominions of India and Pakistan.
  - It ended British rule in India.
- Why This Matters: It was the legal instrument that granted India its freedom.
- Recall:
  The Indian Independence Act was passed by the British Parliament in:
  A) June 1947
  B) July 1947
  C) August 1947
  D) January 1950

15 August 1947
Title: Indian Independence

- Bullets:
  - India achieved independence from British rule.
  - Jawaharlal Nehru became the first Prime Minister.
  - He hoisted the tricolor flag at the Red Fort in Delhi.
  - The country was partitioned, leading to massive migration and violence.
- Why This Matters: It was the fulfillment of the decades-long freedom struggle and the birth of the world's largest democracy.
- Recall:
  India achieved independence on:
  A) January 26, 1950
  B) August 15, 1947
  C) January 30, 1948
  D) November 26, 1949

---

7. The Contemporary World

28 June 1914
Title: Sarajevo Crisis

- Bullets:
    - Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, was assassinated.
    - The assassin was a Serbian nationalist.
    - Austria-Hungary blamed Serbia for the attack.
    - This event triggered the chain of events leading to WWI.
- Why This Matters: It was the immediate spark that ignited the First World War.
- Recall:
  The immediate cause of World War I was the assassination of:
  A) Kaiser Wilhelm II
  B) Archduke Franz Ferdinand
  C) Count von Berchtold
  D) Tsar Nicholas II

28 July 1914
Title: Declaration of War

- Bullets:
    - Austria-Hungary declared war on Serbia.
    - This was a month after the assassination.
    - The system of alliances quickly drew other nations into the conflict.
    - This marked the formal beginning of the war.
- Why This Matters: It turned a regional dispute into a European conflict.
- Recall:
  World War I began when Austria-Hungary declared war on:
  A) Russia
  B) Germany
  C) Serbia
  D) France

1-4 August 1914
Title: Spread of Conflict

- Bullets:
    - Germany declared war on Russia and France.
    - Germany invaded Belgium to attack France.
    - Britain declared war on Germany for violating Belgium's neutrality.

    - The war had now become a full-scale European war.
- Why This Matters: It drew all major European powers into the war.
- Recall:
  Germany's invasion of which neutral country brought Britain into WWI?
  A) Holland
  B) Belgium
  C) Luxembourg
  D) Switzerland

April 1917
Title: USA Enters the War

- Bullets:
    - The United States joined the war on the side of the Allies.
    - Reasons included German submarine warfare (sinking of the Lusitania).
    - The entry of fresh American troops boosted the Allies.
    - It changed the balance of power in favor of the Allies.
- Why This Matters: It provided the Allies with the manpower and resources needed to defeat the Central Powers.
- Recall:
  The United States entered World War I in:
  A) 1914
  B) 1915
  C) 1917
  D) 1918

11 November 1918
Title: Armistice Signed

- Bullets:
    - Germany signed an armistice (agreement to stop fighting).
    - It was signed in a railway carriage in Compiègne, France.
    - This brought an end to the fighting on the Western Front.
    - It is commemorated as Armistice Day or Remembrance Day.
- Why This Matters: It marked the end of the four-year-long conflict of World War I.
- Recall:
  The Armistice that ended the fighting in World War I was signed on:
  A) 28 June 1919
  B) 11 November 1918

C) 10 January 1920
D) 28 June 1914

28 June 1919
Title: Treaty of Versailles

- Bullets:
    - The peace treaty that officially ended WWI.
    - Signed exactly five years after the Sarajevo assassination.
    - Imposed harsh terms on Germany, including massive reparations.
    - Germany lost its colonies and territories.
- Why This Matters: Its harsh and humiliating terms on Germany created deep resentment, which was later exploited by Hitler to rise to power.
- Recall:
  The treaty that ended World War I was the:
  A) Treaty of Paris
  B) Treaty of Versailles
  C) Treaty of Vienna
  D) Treaty of Portsmouth

10 January 1920
Title: Formation of the League of Nations

- Bullets:
    - Established under the Treaty of Versailles.
    - Its main aim was to maintain world peace.
    - It was proposed by US President Woodrow Wilson.
    - The USA never joined the League.
- Why This Matters: It was the first international organization dedicated to preventing future wars, but it ultimately failed.
- Recall:
  The League of Nations was formed in:
  A) 1918
  B) 1919
  C) 1920
  D) 1921

---

8. Rise of Dictatorships

1919
Title: Formation of Fascist Party

- Bullets:
    - Founded by Benito Mussolini in Italy.
    - It was formed from the 'Fasci di Combattimento'.
    - It opposed communism and liberalism.
    - It promoted extreme nationalism and militarism.
- Why This Matters: It marked the beginning of the fascist movement in Europe.
- Recall:
  The Fascist Party in Italy was founded by:
  A) Adolf Hitler
  B) Benito Mussolini
  C) Giuseppe Garibaldi
  D) Count Cavour

1920
Title: Formation of Nazi Party

- Bullets:
    - The German Workers' Party was renamed the National Socialist German Workers' Party (Nazi Party).
    - Adolf Hitler emerged as its leader.
    - It was based on extreme nationalism, racism, and anti-Semitism.
    - It opposed the Treaty of Versailles.
- Why This Matters: It created the political vehicle that would take Hitler to power and lead to World War II.
- Recall:
  The Nazi Party in Germany was formed in:
  A) 1919
  B) 1920
  C) 1921
  D) 1923

28 October 1922
Title: March on Rome

- Bullets:
    - Mussolini led his fascist supporters in a march on Rome.

    - The Italian King, Victor Emmanuel III, refused to use the army to stop them.
    - He invited Mussolini to form a government.
    - This event brought Mussolini to power.
- Why This Matters: It was the first successful fascist takeover in Europe.
- Recall:
  Mussolini came to power in Italy after the:
  A) Beer Hall Putsch
  B) March on Rome
  C) Reichstag Fire
  D) Night of the Long Knives

1923
Title: Beer Hall Putsch

- Bullets:
    - Hitler and the Nazi Party attempted to seize power in Munich, Germany.
    - The coup attempt failed.
    - Hitler was arrested and imprisoned.
    - In prison, he wrote his book, 'Mein Kampf' (My Struggle).
- Why This Matters: Although a failure, it gave Hitler national attention and time to develop his ideology.
- Recall:
  The failed coup attempt by Hitler in 1923 is known as the:
  A) Munich Pact
  B) Beer Hall Putsch
  C) Reichstag Fire
  D) Kristallnacht

30 January 1933
Title: Hitler Becomes Chancellor

- Bullets:
    - President Hindenburg appointed Adolf Hitler as Chancellor of Germany.
    - The Nazi Party had become the largest party in the Reichstag.
    - This was the legal beginning of the Nazi regime.
    - It marked the end of the Weimar Republic.
- Why This Matters: It was the moment Hitler legally took power, setting the stage for his dictatorship.

- Recall:
  Adolf Hitler became the Chancellor of Germany in:
  A) 1929
  B) 1931
  C) 1933
  D) 1939

March 1933
Title: Enabling Act

- Bullets:
  - Passed by the German Reichstag (parliament).
  - Gave Hitler the power to make laws without the parliament's consent.
  - It effectively dismantled German democracy.
  - It established the legal basis for Hitler's dictatorship.
- Why This Matters: It gave Hitler absolute power to implement his racist and expansionist policies.
- Recall:
  The Enabling Act of 1933 gave dictatorial powers to:
  A) Paul von Hindenburg
  B) Adolf Hitler
  C) Hermann Göring
  D) Joseph Goebbels

August 1934
Title: Hitler Becomes Führer

- Bullets:
  - President Hindenburg died.
  - Hitler merged the offices of President and Chancellor.
  - He took the title of 'Führer' (leader).
  - The army swore a personal oath of allegiance to him.
- Why This Matters: It made Hitler the absolute and undisputed dictator of Germany.
- Recall:
  After the death of President Hindenburg, Hitler became the:
  A) Chancellor
  B) President
  C) Führer
  D) Prime Minister

---

9. The Second World War

1931
Title: Japan Invades Manchuria

- Bullets:
    - Japan invaded the resource-rich region of Manchuria in China.
    - It was an act of open aggression.
    - The League of Nations failed to take effective action.
    - It showed the weakness of the League.
- Why This Matters: It was the first major act of aggression by an Axis power and a precursor to WWII.
- Recall:
  Japan invaded Manchuria in:
  A) 1931
  B) 1933
  C) 1937
  D) 1939

1937
Title: Japan Invades China

- Bullets:
    - Japan launched a full-scale invasion of China.
    - This led to the Second Sino-Japanese War.
    - It was marked by brutal atrocities like the 'Rape of Nanking'.
    - It further destabilized the international order.
- Why This Matters: It was another major act of aggression that went unchecked, encouraging further expansion by the Axis.
- Recall:
  The 'Rape of Nanking' was a notorious atrocity committed by:
  A) Germany
  B) Italy
  C) Japan
  D) Soviet Union

1 September 1939
Title: Invasion of Poland

- Bullets:
    - Germany invaded Poland using 'Blitzkrieg' (lightning war) tactics.
    - This was the final act of aggression that triggered the war.
    - Britain and France had pledged to defend Poland.
    - This event is universally considered the start of WWII.
- Why This Matters: It was the direct cause for Britain and France declaring war on Germany.
- Recall:
  World War II began with Germany's invasion of:
  A) France
  B) Austria
  C) Czechoslovakia
  D) Poland

3 September 1939
Title: Official Start of WWII

- Bullets:
    - Britain and France declared war on Germany.
    - They honored their commitment to defend Poland.
    - The war, which had started as a European conflict, now became global.
    - Other nations soon joined one of the two opposing alliances.
- Why This Matters: It marks the official beginning of World War II as a major global conflict.
- Recall:
  Britain and France declared war on Germany on:
  A) 1 September 1939
  B) 3 September 1939
  C) 1 September 1940
  D) 7 December 1941

7 December 1941
Title: Attack on Pearl Harbor

- Bullets:
    - Japan launched a surprise air attack on the US naval base in Hawaii.
    - It crippled the US Pacific fleet.
    - Prompted the United States to formally enter World War II.
    - Transformed the war into a truly global conflict.

- Why This Matters: It brought the military and industrial might of the USA into the war, ensuring the eventual defeat of the Axis powers.
- Recall:
  The US entered World War II after Japan attacked:
  A) Hiroshima
  B) Pearl Harbor
  C) Nagasaki
  D) Midway

8 December 1941
Title: USA Declares War

- Bullets:
  - The USA declared war on Japan.
  - Germany and Italy then declared war on the USA.
  - The USA was now fully involved in both the European and Pacific theaters.
  - This created the powerful Allied coalition of the USA, UK, and Soviet Union.
- Why This Matters: It completed the major alliance system that would fight and win the war.
- Recall:
  The United States declared war on Japan on:
  A) 7 December 1941
  B) 8 December 1941
  C) 11 December 1941
  D) 1 January 1942

7 May 1945
Title: Germany Surrenders

- Bullets:
  - Germany signed an unconditional surrender.
  - This marked the end of the war in Europe.
  - It was celebrated as V-E Day (Victory in Europe Day).
  - Hitler had already committed suicide on April 30.
- Why This Matters: It marked the defeat of Nazi Germany and the end of the most destructive part of the war in Europe.
- Recall:
  Germany surrendered in World War II in:
  A) April 1945
  B) May 1945

C) August 1945
D) September 1945

6 August 1945
Title: Atomic Bomb on Hiroshima

- Bullets:
    - The US dropped an atomic bomb codenamed 'Little Boy' on Hiroshima.
    - It caused unprecedented destruction and killed over 1,40,000 people.
    - Japan did not surrender immediately.
    - It ushered in the nuclear age.
- Why This Matters: It was the first use of a nuclear weapon in war, demonstrating its devastating power.
- Recall:
  The first atomic bomb, 'Little Boy', was dropped on:
  A) Nagasaki
  B) Tokyo
  C) Hiroshima
  D) Osaka

9 August 1945
Title: Atomic Bomb on Nagasaki

- Bullets:
    - The US dropped a second atomic bomb, 'Fat Man', on Nagasaki.
    - It killed an estimated 70,000 people.
    - The sheer destruction forced Japan to surrender.
    - It remains the last use of a nuclear weapon in conflict.
- Why This Matters: It led directly to the end of World War II.
- Recall:
  The second atomic bomb, 'Fat Man', was dropped on:
  A) Hiroshima
  B) Nagasaki
  C) Kyoto
  D) Yokohama

15 August 1945
Title: Japan Surrenders

- Bullets:

    - Emperor Hirohito announced Japan's surrender.
    - This marked the end of World War II.
    - It is celebrated as V-J Day (Victory over Japan Day).
    - The formal surrender was signed on 2 September.
- Why This Matters: It brought a complete end to the six-year-long global conflict.
- Recall:
  The Second World War ended with the surrender of:
  A) Germany
  B) Italy
  C) Japan
  D) The Soviet Union

24 October 1945
Title: Formation of the United Nations

- Bullets:
    - The United Nations was officially established.
    - Its charter had been signed by 51 countries in San Francisco in June.
    - Its primary aim is to maintain international peace and security.
    - It replaced the ineffective League of Nations.
- Why This Matters: It remains the primary global forum for international cooperation and conflict resolution.
- Recall:
  The United Nations was officially formed on:
  A) 24 October 1945
  B) 26 June 1945
  C) 10 December 1948
  D) 1 January 1946

---

10. United Nations & Non-Aligned Movement

January 1946
Title: First UN General Assembly

- Bullets:
    - The first session of the UN General Assembly was held.
    - It took place in London.
    - It marked the beginning of the UN's functional work.
    - All 51 original member states were represented.

- Why This Matters: It was the first official meeting of all UN members to begin its work for global peace.
- Recall:
  The first UN General Assembly was held in:
  A) New York
  B) San Francisco
  C) London
  D) Geneva

18 April 1946
Title: Inauguration of ICJ

- Bullets:
  - The International Court of Justice (ICJ) was inaugurated.
  - It is the principal judicial organ of the UN.
  - It is located in The Hague, Netherlands.
  - It settles legal disputes between states.
- Why This Matters: It provides a peaceful, legal means for countries to resolve their disputes.
- Recall:
  The International Court of Justice is located in:
  A) Geneva
  B) New York
  C) The Hague
  D) Vienna

11 December 1946
Title: Establishment of UNICEF

- Bullets:
  - The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) was established.
  - It provides humanitarian and developmental aid to children worldwide.
  - It focuses on child health, nutrition, education, and protection.
  - It was initially created to help children after WWII.
- Why This Matters: It is a major UN agency dedicated to the welfare and rights of children globally.
- Recall:
  The UN agency dedicated to the welfare of children is:
  A) WHO

B) UNESCO
C) UNICEF
D) ILO

1946
Title: Establishment of UNESCO

- Bullets:
  - The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) was established.
  - It aims to promote peace through international cooperation in education, science, and culture.
  - It is known for its World Heritage Sites program.
  - It works to improve education and protect cultural heritage.
- Why This Matters: It promotes global cooperation to build peace in the minds of men and women.
- Recall:
  The UN agency responsible for protecting World Heritage Sites is:
  A) WHO
  B) UNESCO
  C) UNICEF
  D) UNDP

1948
Title: Establishment of WHO

- Bullets:
  - The World Health Organization (WHO) was established.
  - It is the directing and coordinating authority for health within the UN.
  - It works to combat diseases and improve global health standards.
  - It played a key role in eradicating smallpox.
- Why This Matters: It is the leading global organization for public health.
- Recall:
  The World Health Organization (WHO) was established in:
  A) 1945
  B) 1946
  C) 1948
  D) 1950

29 April 1954
Title: Panchsheel Agreement

- Bullets:
    - The Panchsheel (Five Principles of Peaceful Coexistence) was signed.
    - It was an agreement between India (Jawaharlal Nehru) and China.
    - The principles include mutual respect and non-interference.
    - It became the ideological basis for the Non-Aligned Movement.
- Why This Matters: It provided the foundational principles for the Non-Aligned Movement.
- Recall:
  The Panchsheel Agreement was signed between India and:
  A) Pakistan
  B) China
  C) Egypt
  D) Yugoslavia

18-24 April 1955
Title: Bandung Conference

- Bullets:
    - A historic meeting of Asian and African countries in Indonesia.
    - It was hosted by President Sukarno.
    - Leaders like Nehru, Nasser, and Zhou Enlai attended.
    - It condemned colonialism and promoted economic and cultural cooperation.
- Why This Matters: It laid the groundwork for the formal establishment of the Non-Aligned Movement.
- Recall:
  The Bandung Conference was held in:
  A) 1954
  B) 1955
  C) 1956
  D) 1961

19 July 1956
Title: Brioni Declaration

- Bullets:

    - A declaration issued by Jawaharlal Nehru, Josip Broz Tito, and Gamal Abdel Nasser.
    - It was signed on the Brioni Islands in Yugoslavia.
    - It called for peace and active coexistence.
    - It is considered a key step towards forming NAM.
- Why This Matters: It formalized the cooperation between the three key leaders of the NAM movement.
- Recall:
  The Brioni Declaration was signed by all of the following EXCEPT:
  A) Jawaharlal Nehru
  B) Gamal Abdel Nasser
  C) Josip Broz Tito
  D) Sukarno

1-6 September 1961
Title: First NAM Summit

- Bullets:
    - The first summit of the Non-Aligned Movement was held in Belgrade, Yugoslavia.
    - It was attended by 25 member states.
    - The main architects were Nehru, Tito, Nasser, Sukarno, and Nkrumah.
    - It aimed to keep newly independent countries out of the Cold War blocs.
- Why This Matters: It marked the formal birth of the Non-Aligned Movement as an international organization.
- Recall:
  The first Non-Aligned Movement summit was held in:
  A) Bandung
  B) New Delhi
  C) Belgrade
  D) Cairo